

Paragraph 1: Introduction

Topic Sentence: Write one sentence naming the person and why they are important.

1. What is their full name?
 2. When and where were they born?
 3. What field did they become known for (science, sports, arts, politics, etc)?
 4. Why do people still remember them today?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, restate why this person is worth learning about.

Paragraph 2: Early Life and Background

Topic Sentence: Sum up their childhood and family life in one sentence.

1. Who was in their family, and what was their childhood like?
 2. Where did they go to school, and what were they like as a student?
 3. Was there a person or event that inspired or influenced them early on?
 4. What hardships (if any) did they face growing up?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, link their early life to who they later became.

Paragraph 3: The Challenge or Turning Point

Topic Sentence: Name the key problem or turning point in one sentence.

1. What big problem, unfair rule, or barrier did they face?
 2. What decision did they make to try to change or solve it?
 3. Why was this moment important for their life or career?
 4. How did people around them react?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain why this moment mattered.

Paragraph 4: Their Contribution

Topic Sentence: State what they achieved, invented, or created in one sentence.

1. What did they actually do, invent, discover, or create?
 2. Who did their work help or affect?
 3. What made their work different or special compared to others?
 4. What skills or qualities helped them succeed?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, sum up why their contribution mattered.

Paragraph 5: Obstacles and Perseverance

Topic Sentence: Name the setbacks they faced in one sentence.

1. What setbacks, failures, or unfair treatment did they experience?
 2. How did they respond when things got hard?
 3. Did anyone try to stop them or doubt them? What happened?
 4. What personal qualities (patience, courage, persistence) helped them keep going?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain what this shows about their character.

Paragraph 6: Later Years and Retirement

Topic Sentence: Describe what their life looked like in later years, in one sentence.

1. What did they do later in life, after their major achievement(s)?
 2. Did they keep working, mentor others, or retire?
 3. How did their life or daily routine look different in later years?
 4. When and how did their career or life come to an end (if applicable)?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, sum up how their later years compared to their earlier career.

Paragraph 7: Legacy and Recognition

Topic Sentence: State how they are remembered today, in one sentence.

1. How are they remembered today?
 2. Who has been influenced or inspired by them?
 3. Are there things named after them (buildings, awards, books, films)?
 4. Why does their story still matter?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain their lasting impact.

Paragraph 8: Awards and Honors

Topic Sentence: Name their most significant award or honour in one sentence.

1. What specific awards, medals, or honours did they receive?
 2. Who gave them this award, and when?
 3. Why did they receive it — what was being recognized?
 4. Was there any award or honour they received after their lifetime?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain what these honours show about their achievements.

Paragraph 9: Conclusion

Topic Sentence: Restate why this person matters, in one new sentence.

1. In your own words, summarise their greatest achievement.
 2. What can readers learn from their life story?
 3. Why should this person be remembered by future generations?
 4. How does this connect back to your introduction's hook?
- Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, leave the reader with a final thought about this person.

Optional Extras

- Interesting Facts / Did You Know? — a short, engaging sidebar section
- Timeline of Key Events — a visual timeline of milestones
- Quotes — a meaningful quote from or about the person

Paragraph 1: Introduction

Topic Sentence: Write one sentence naming the person and why they are important.

1. What is their full name?
2. When and where were they born?
3. What field did they become known for (science, sports, arts, politics, etc)?
4. Why do people still remember them today?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, restate why this person is worth learning about.

Paragraph 2: Early Life and Background

Topic Sentence: Sum up their childhood and family life in one sentence.

1. Who was in their family, and what was their childhood like?
2. Where did they go to school, and what were they like as a student?
3. Was there a person or event that inspired or influenced them early on?
4. What hardships (if any) did they face growing up?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, link their early life to who they later became.

Paragraph 3: The Challenge or Turning Point

Topic Sentence: Name the key problem or turning point in one sentence.

1. What big problem, unfair rule, or barrier did they face?
2. What decision did they make to try to change or solve it?
3. Why was this moment important for their life or career?
4. How did people around them react?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain why this moment mattered

Paragraph 4: Their Contribution

Topic Sentence: State what they achieved, invented, or created in one sentence.

1. What did they actually do, invent, discover, or create?
2. Who did their work help or affect?
3. What made their work different or special compared to others?
4. What skills or qualities helped them succeed?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, sum up why their contribution mattered

Paragraph 5: Obstacles and Perseverance

Topic Sentence: Name the setbacks they faced in one sentence.

1. What setbacks, failures, or unfair treatment did they experience?
2. How did they respond when things got hard?
3. Did anyone try to stop them or doubt them? What happened?
4. What personal qualities (patience, courage, persistence) helped them keep going?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain what this shows about the character.

Paragraph 6: Later Years and Retirement

Topic Sentence: Describe what their life looked like in later years, in one sentence.

1. What did they do later in life, after their major achievement(s)?
2. Did they keep working, mentor others, or retire?
3. How did their life or daily routine look different in later years?
4. When and how did their career or life come to an end (if applicable)?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, sum up how their later years compared to their earlier career.

Paragraph 7: Legacy and Recognition

Topic Sentence: State how they are remembered today, in one sentence.

1. How are they remembered today?
2. Who has been influenced or inspired by them?
3. Are there things named after them (buildings, awards, books, films)?
4. Why does their story still matter?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain their lasting impact.

Paragraph 8: Awards and Honors

Topic Sentence: Name their most significant award or honour in one sentence.

1. What specific awards, medals, or honours did they receive?
2. Who gave them this award, and when?
3. Why did they receive it — what was being recognized?
4. Was there any award or honour they received after their lifetime?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, explain what these honours show about their achievements

Paragraph 9: Conclusion

Topic Sentence: Restate why this person matters, in one new sentence.

1. In your own words, summarise their greatest achievement.
2. What can readers learn from their life story?
3. Why should this person be remembered by future generations?
4. How does this connect back to your introduction's hook?

Concluding Sentence: In one sentence, leave the reader with a final thought about this person.

Optional Extras

- Interesting Facts / Did You Know? — a short, engaging sidebar section
- Timeline of Key Events — a visual timeline of milestones
- Quotes — a meaningful quote from or about the person